We have just been informed that Mrs. Charlie Hall of Dorset was the lucky winner of an attached case with four bottles of cheer. The draw was sponsored by the Ministry of Transportation and Communication boys of Haliburton. The ticket was drawn at the Legion Hall.

We received a Christmas card from our friend Curry (Pork) Whittaker with a picture of the Winston-Salem Polar Twins hockey club of which he is trainer. The photo shows Pork looking quite hearty and healthy.

In this day and age there's always something new to make winter seem just a little easier. During a trip around Haliburton following a recent snow storm we were quite surprised to see so many snow blowers being used to get rid of the snow.

A weather report for all those who have cottages in the Highlands of Haliburton. Last week below zero temperatures prevailed with a considerable amount of snow falling. The snow is starting to pile up and if you have not already shovelled the snow off your cottage roof we would recommend that you do so right away.

Mr. Al Connelly, Public Liaison Officer of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, will be in this area and available at the Municipal Office in Minden on Tuesday, 12 February, from 2 to 5 p.m. He will also be available at the Municipal Hall in Haliburton on Wednesday, 13 February, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m."

Chamber of Commerce president says:

Withdrawal of government grants puts group in financial jeopardy

Because of the Ontario Governments withdrawal of $7500.00 plus approximately $1500.00 co-op advertising grants to our Regional Tourist Council the financial make up of our Chamber is in jeopardy stated Ted Gardiner president of the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce while addressing a special general meeting of local chamber members at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School in Haliburton on Wednesday, January 9th.

The meeting was billed as a "Time of Decision" and the close to fifty members present were asked to decide if they wanted to function as a true Chamber of Commerce or call it quits and fold. This is why this special meeting was called.

The president went on to explain that The Ministry of Industry and Tourism have decided to fund 11 Travel Areas in the Province in place of the 39 Regional Tourist Councils. These 11 Travel Areas are each to receive $30,000.00 as a straight administrative grant to provide office facilities, secretarial help and the hiring of a general manager. On top of this the Ministry proposes co-operative grants as follows. Northern Ontario 10/90 basis, Eastern Ontario 25/75 basis, Balance of Ontario 50/50 basis (includes our area).

The president closed his remarks by speaking of the briefs and letters prepared and sent to Mr. Claude Bennett, Minister of Industry and Tourism which for the most part were not acknowledged and unanswered.

Grenville Martin, the Chamber Finance Committee Chairman read out 1973-74 financial position to date (year ending March 31st 1974). He pointed out that the Chamber was operating on a yearly budget of about $23,000.00 but by losing the grants would leave them with an approximate income of $13,000.00, providing the County Council continues the level of their grant to the Chamber, and the Membership remains constant. This would mean that a total of $10,000 must come from somewhere.

In an effort to pick up the difference the following suggestions were made. Raise the membership dues, place a surcharge on dues and to ask County Council for an increase in their grant to the chamber.

It was the feeling of the meeting that it was very essential to have a full time Secretary-Manager and without one only a mediocre job would be done.

It was suggested at this meeting that the Chamber of Commerce should get out of the information booth at Minden and that they request the Municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden to accept the responsibility of the Information booth such as we have on Haliburton, Dorset and Paudash Lake. A vote was taken on this issue and it passed practically unanimously.

It seemed to be the feeling of all present that if the chamber is to operate effectively that they must broaden their outlook and look into other matters other than the tourist industry.

Roy Brohm and Murray

Fearrey spoke on their successful operation of their information Booth and thanked the Chamber for their support and their supplying of literature etc. Also suggested the Chamber approach County Council with the proposals they have for the coming year.

Art Lock spoke of some of the needs of his Dorset area and also more Chamber involvement there. Gary Agnew as Chairman of the County Centennial Committee spoke of the lack of feedback to Mrs. Lahay from groups and organizations in the County regarding upcoming functions.

Art Ward and Bruce Henry put forth their respective views on the information booth. Both were in favour of some type of Haliburton Highlands promotional literature. S/M agreed on this necessity if only as a means of answering enquiries for the area.

Lur Hodgson Chairman of the Industrial Committee of the Chamber spoke business community and talked of further seminars along this line. That investment in our County should be increased. That the Toronto based plan, making us a green belt be disbanded. That public opinion be changed to allow some non polluting industrial growth. Also that the funding from our County Council would be a more equitable method than the raising of Chamber members dues.

Murray Agnew felt our Membership in the Chamber could and should be increased. That there has to be more than 21 citizens in our County that are willing to spend a few dollars for promotion so that other and in turn themselves will prosper.

President Ted called for a stretch break and asked for resolutions to be made upon returning.

After the break Ted outlined some of his views on the future operation of the Chamber, and also stated there could be benefits from the new.

Travel Association that are not immediately apparent. That there meetings will be attended and reported on as they occur. The next Pro Tem Committee meeting is on Jan. 23rd at 1:30 p.m. at the Rock Haven Motel in Peterborough.

Bill O'Brien suggested that the Centennial committee be approached to provide covers for our business and accommodation guides with a Centennial theme.

The following resolutions were made:-

Moved by Grenville Martin 2nd by Don Nye:- That the Board of Directors of The Chamber propose to the Townships of Anson Hindon and Minden that they take over the operation and maintenance of the Information Booth on Highway 35, with co-ordination and supplying of literature etc by the Chamber of Commerce. Carried.

Moved by Ted Gardiner 2nd by Lou Hodgson:- That the Board of Directors propose to the members of the Chamber at the Annual meeting, that a surcharge of 40% on annual dues be applied for a period of one year only. Carried.

Moved by Grenville Martin 2nd by Dennis Farnsworth:- That the Board of Directors propose to County Council that their grant to the Chamber for the year 1974 be a minimum of $9000.00. Carried.

President Ted Gardiner thanked the members and guests for their attendance, and expressed the Board of Directors confidence in the future of the Chamber.

La Rue Bus Lines is sold to Travelways

Another family business in the community has changed hands during the past months.

La Rue Bus Lines Limited has sold their controlling shares to Travelways Limited of Thornhill. Albert and Wilda LaRue originated the school bus service in 1947 and obtained a charter licence was well year later.

Their son, Scott became involved in the business in 1966 and the business expanded from 5 buses to 18 when the deal was finalized on the 28th of December.

The first school bus run originated in West Guilford and returned to Haliburton via Eagle Lake. At that time Albert and Wilda operated the Highland Snack Bar which has changed several times in the past few years and is now called the Driftwood.

Ab, as he is commonly known, bought his second bus and leaving Haliburton at 6:00 a.m. picked up men to carry them to work to the Hay & Co. Mill at Kennis Lake.

He would then pick up the children on the return trip to Haliburton. The men worked until 5:30 p.m. and he would not get home until 6:30 or later in the evening.

He had many hazardous times on the old Kennis Road meeting log trucks and getting up some of the steep hills.

At this time Ab hired a young fellow, Len Salvatori, to drive the Eagle Lake bus and to work in the restaurant after the bus run and on weekends. Len was only 18 at the time and was still going to high school while driving the bus.

Times have certainly changed, since then. During the next few years the restaurant was sold in 1952 and Ab, operated 3 cottages on Drag Lake during the summer, before the charter business occupied more of his time.

In 1966 Scott was asked to move into the business as it was found that in order to operate properly the business must expand and help was needed. A garage was built and several routes were purchased from other operators in the area as well as acquiring others by public tender. The summer business flourished during these years and most buses were used on a year-round basis.

Boys' and Girls' camps found that it was safer and more economical to move their campers by bus rather than in the back of trucks, and several camps are now instigating bus tours to different areas in their camp program.

Scott LaRue will be staying on as manager of this division which will comprise of their 18 buses, 12 buses that were formerly operated by Dave Stamp in Minden, and 3 buses formerly owned by Mervin Barry of Minden.

Stock Bros. Bus Lines Ltd. of Orillia will be the head office in the northern division of Travelways Limited with Mr. Gerry Stock Vice-president of Travelways and President of Stock Bros. Bus Lines Ltd. the supervisor. Travelways hope to provide good service in Haliburton County and since they have purchased Algar Coach Lines Ltd. in Lindsay there will be School Buses, Activity Buses and Coaches available to interested charter groups in the area, for trips to any point in North America.

Huskies split matches

The Travelways Huskies hockey squad split week-end games, as it defeated the visiting Newcastle team here on Saturday night by a 6-2 score and then lost its first game of the schedule in Lakefield on Sunday night.

On Saturday night Roger Bain and Ernie Bain each scored twice while Tim Curry and Larry Robinson added singles.

On Sunday night Roger Bain scored the only goal of the 1st period to give the Huskies a 1-0 lead.

In the 2nd period Ernie Bain scored for Haliburton with Rich Flagler and Ted Stabler scoring for Lakefield to tie the score at 2-2 at the end of the 2nd. The 3rd period saw Lakefield outscore the Huskies by 3-1 to gain the 5-3 victory.

Louis O'Hara played an outstanding game in the Haliburton nets to keep the game close throughout the 1st 2 periods.

This Saturday night the visitors will be the Little Britain team. Little Britain appears to be a much improved team since the 1st of the year having tied the Huskies in their last game and defeating Bobcaygeon and Newcastle.

Peewees continue win streak

The Haliburton Pee Wees hockey team is continuing its winning ways. On Tuesday Jan. 8 it travelled to Minden and defeated the home team 6-2 on goals by Ed Roberts, Chris Hodgson, Roger Hicks, Mike Rae, Bernie Nicholls and Lenard Hodgson.

Thursday Jan. 10 saw the Pee Wees in Bobcaygeon for a 7-2 victory. Goals were scored by Bernie Nicholls and Chris Hodgson with two each and singles going to Lenard Hodgson, Mike Rae and Ed Roberts. Craig Wood has been outstanding in the net for Haliburton.

The next Pee Wee home game is Jan. 22 at 7: p.m. against Minden.

The Haliburton Atoms played three games last week. On Jan. 4 Bobcaygeon went home from Haliburton with a 6-0 victory and on Jan. 11 Fenelon Falls went away with a 5-2 victory. Scoring for Haliburton were Kevin Shapiro and Paul Madden. On Saturday Jan. 12 Haliburton went to Minden. Although the atoms squad controlled most of the game it were unlucky around the net. The game ended with a 1-1 tie David Nicholls scored for Haliburton. David Eldstone was in the net for Haliburton. These little boys are skating hard and improving every game. The atoms next home game is Friday Jan. 18 at 7 p.m. against Minden.

Perrott's Perch

BY LARRY PERROTT - SECRETARY MANAGER

Our winter season has arrived and with it a burst of outdoor activities, such as skiing, ice fishing, snowmobiling etc. At this time the Chamber would like to pay tribute to a man in our County who has done so much for the Snowmobiler. I refer of course to Roy Bates who presently writes the column "Along the Trails" for our local papers.

Roy and his wife, and many others have given freely of their time in the formation of the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association. Roy has cut trails, led safaris, held cookouts prepared and presented briefs to organizations and to Government, and has been involved in almost every snowmobile happening in our County and elsewhere. Because of this and others efforts we have many marked trails, an excellent snowmobile, may of the County and now a new trail groomer.

BUT: - we snowmobilers in Haliburton County are too busy, too lazy, too complacent or something to help give Roy a strong enough voice to even get an L.I.P. grant, or any Government help to accomplish the objectives he and others have for our County. I refer to membership in a snowmobile club, ANI snowmobile club. All the manufacturers and the Ontario Safety League recommend it.

So let us all get behind Roy Bates and all the others working with him that are trying to make our County the best Snowmobiling area in the Province. JOIN A CLUB. and with your membership you will be helping to give Roy and the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association the strength in numbers that is required to do the job.

A tip of the hat to Roy Bates and if there is to be a County Centennial award we will find him a strong contender.

Service... Selection... Price...

Three words; not much of a mouthful but it says a lot about Schwandt's Homecare Building Centre. With today's inflation it's almost impossible to find any business that delivers all three. Some places advertise low prices; but you sacrifice selection and service. You know the kind of place we mean. Schwandt's offers all three. You can bet on it. And that's really a mouthful. Try us for all of your building or redecorating needs. You'll find that just three words really say a lot.

Snowmobiling on ice is not worth the risk

Some of the larger lakes in Haliburton County are not as yet safe for snowmobiling. Some of the smaller lakes should be alright. Over a recent weekend people were warned all over Ontario not to travel on the lakes and rivers, but many ignored these warnings and some came to a very sad ending. During the past week we received some reports that some snowmobilers either went into the water or in some cases came very close and just by luck escaped without injury. We have had the odd cold spell but not quite enough yet to make some of the larger lakes safe for snowmobiling.

Just recently markers were placed around the section of Head Lake in Haliburton where the Drag River runs into Head Lake. There's quite a current here and all snowmobilers are asked to stay clear of this area.

Everyone realizes that half of the fun in snowmobiling is being able to get into the lakes and explore new country, but if they are not safe it just isn't worth the risk of taking a chance that everything will be okay.

Snowmobiling is a great winter sport that supplies many with a great deal of enjoyment but we don't want to lose anyone through an accident on thin ice. So before going onto the lakes please check the ice thickness out with the proper authorities and make sure that the lakes are safe. Please heed these warnings!

In spite of constant warnings, operators fail to recognize the obvious dangers and the inevitable tragic outcome. The shock of being plugged into ice cold water and the rapid paralyzing effect on the body are quick to render the victim helpless. Fast moving currents, underground springs, pressure cracks and the separation of ice fields can make ice surfaces dangerous. There can never be any period of guarantee safety on the ice.

CAT AND MOUSE GAME

AND I'M THE MOUSE

This week I've been batching it, and I must say that I miss my wife. It's not that I can't cook and wash dishes and make the bed and do all those other silly things that our poor wives have to do day after day, year after year.

No, there's no problem there. It's the danged cats. They're driving me out of the remnants of what was once a fine mind.

I'd rather live with a herd of goats than with two cats, I've concluded.

Take one elderly she-cat who has been spayed. She was quite content with life. She is beautiful and very, very distant, except when she's hungry.

There isn't a bone in her body that is friendly. She just wants you to keep your distance, feed her well, and let her bask on a sunny stair-tread. In return, she will guarantee not to make a mess in the house. I had just begun to tolerate her, if not like her, after about six years.

Now, add a boisterous young tom cat. He's as agile as an orang-outan, has an appetite like a polar bear, has the manners of a pig, and is sickeningly friendly.

He has completely disrupted what was a fairly quiet, peaceful household.

He is driving the old cat out of her nut. He follows her around, licking and kissing her, until she spits, takes a swipe at him and makes him back off long enough for her to skedaddle to one of her hideouts. He looks hurt.

All you have to do is settle down with a newspaper and a cup of tea, and he's quite likely to come flying through the air, sending the paper one way and the tea the other, as he seeks solace for his yearning heart.

Given any encouragement whatever, he'll climb all over you, digging his claws into your shoulders because he doesn't know any better, smooching your face and neck in a wet, disgusting fashion, before thumping himself down for a rest on your stomach or chest or any other part of you that suits his convenience.

Two minutes later, he hears the old cat sneaking around, digs his claws into your knee and takes a flying leap, off to court her some more.

There's absolutely no sex involved. He just wants to be loved by a second mother, but she is a happy, childless widow, and wants to stay that way.

You can't even feed them together. She is a dainty eater. He eats like a wolf who has just broken a long fast. Put down two bowls. He gulps his while she is sniffing hers, then shoulders her aside and gets into her grub, while she bats him ineffectually, then retreats in disgust to sulk under a bed.

She is a bed sneaker-under, since he arrived. And if there's anything more difficult than getting a determined old cat out from under a bed, I'd like to see it.

The only way to do it is go under the bed after her, with a broom or mop. You wind up, puffing, stuck under the bed, while she has darted off and is under one of the beds in one of the other rooms. She's as slippery as an eel and a heck of a lot more cunning.

Meanwhile, during the half hour you chase the old cat, trying to grab any of her extremities so that you can throw her out, where she should have been long ago, his arrogant young nibs is having the run of the kitchen.

He's not a bed sneaker-under. He's a counter-walker. And a cupboard-door-opener. One leap and he's up on the kitchen counters, strolling, sniffing, licking. Don't leave the butter out. He'll down a quarter-pound, straight.

Give him three minutes alone and he's somehow opened the cupboard door below the sink and is gaily into the garbage.

He'll eat anything: baked potato skins, left-over soup, stale lettuce, fried eggs.

The only time I have seen him a bit nonplused was on New Year's Day. Maybe he had a hangover. I was half-drowsing in a chair, and watching him out of a corner of my eye, in case he took a flying leap and threw his arms around my neck to kiss me, which I abhor.

He'd caught a mouse, it seemed, though we've never had mice in this house. He would slam his paw on it, pick it up in his teeth, chew it and swallow it. A tiny mouse.

Thank goodness he's good for something. Then he'd throw up the mouse, and go through the whole business again. I got a bit alarmed that he'd throw up more than the mouse one of these times, onto the rug. I investigated.

He was trying to digest one of those wide elastic bands. Every time he hit it, it would jump, so he thought it was alive and chewed it and swallowed it, but couldn't keep it down.

That's the kind of stupid cat he is. But he's getting smart very quickly. When I try to grab him and throw him out in the snow after a feeding, he goes by me like a cheetah going by a rhinoceros.

Sure wish my wife would get home. It takes two of us to handle the two of them.

"Oh I wish a pelting rain would come" all I can remember of a little ditty my father used to say many years ago. Though rain usually makes the snowmobiler unhappy, nothing would be better right now to put the lakes in good shape. They need to be watered up so they can freeze.

A group of HCSA Directors will be out this weekend (Jan. 13th) to test the lakes along the Tri-Trail. I'll report next week on how many got stuck in the slush.

Stephen Berry, Rob Luke and Ken Bannon were out with the Alpine and drag January 10th. They succeeded in grooming the Tri-Trail from Canning Lake to Mountain Lake, the overland sections only. They will be out again Sunday. Stephen reports that the drag does an excellent job.

Very little response to my offer to make the "other" drag available to any person wishing to use it on any mapped trail. Joe Blair hauled it over the trail from Head Lake to Outlet Bay on Drag one night this week. We hope it can be kept busy. We need a name for this drag, I have called it "Mogul-Mover". How about "Humpty Backed Cow?"

The Pro Drivers Clinic January 8 was surprisingly well attended, and we were particularly pleased by the number of kids. A group of eighteen Cubs came up from Minden. It's hard to teach an old dog new tricks so safety training should be aimed at the snowmobiler of tomorrow. The two films were excellent, and one of them, "White Days and Red Nites" was filmed in part at the Red Nites performance on Head Lake during last winter's Carnival. Even old Huck (Pat Hucal) got his ugly face on the screen!

And speaking of Huck, here are his suggestions for staying alive if you should happen to find yourself through the ice. Ride on ice as if you expect to go in at any moment. Keep your feet free so that you can roll off quickly. Once in the water stay flat and don't struggle. You will have from five to ten minutes before your suit fills up with water - if you are wearing a proper snowmobile suit and if it is properly closed. Heavy boots can drag you down. Best to have them loosened so you can kick them off in the water. To get out of the water, choose the nearest solid ice, and keeping your body flat near the surface, work your head and shoulders over the edge and, sweeping with your arms and kicking with your feet, slide out exactly the way a seal does it. Since the ice was thin enough to let you break in it probably won't carry your weight to stand up and walk away. Stay on your belly until you are some distance from the hole. Above all, don't panic. If you have observed the first rule of safe snowmobiling you will have a buddy nearby to help. His first duty is to keep himself out of the water so he can get a fire going and dry you out. While in the water you are pretty much on your own.

The Donald Windigos have planned an outing for Sunday, January 20. This will include a winter picnic along the trail. Bring your own food. The club will provide the tea and coffee. Meeting place is Head Lake at 11 a.m. Open to all members and prospective members.

I see by the papers that quite a few snowmobilers have tried to beat the system by riding without a license. Some fifty of them are paying for their mistake. The registration fee, while it is too much, is still cheaper than the fine. Join a snowmobile club, or the HCSA, and help us get some of your money back.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

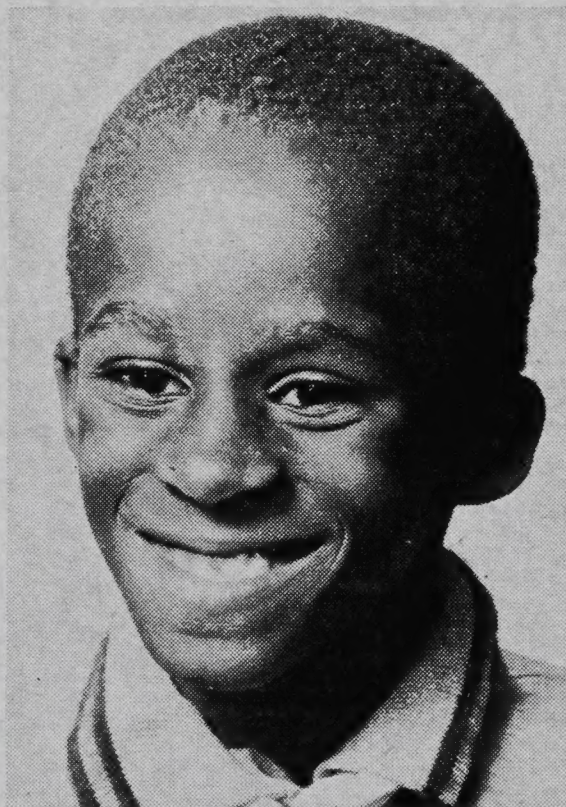

Ricky, 8, is doing well in Grade 3. He is above average in intelligence and is expected to be an achiever in school, especially if he is adopted by a family who will give him both encouragement and opportunities.

Good-looking Ricky has brown eyes, black curly hair and dark skin. He has flat feet but they do not inhibit his activities at all. His health is good. Although he may have some slight allergies, they have not been at all troublesome.

Ricky is a quiet lad, sincere and loyal in his friendships. Very inquisitive, he prefers to figure things out for himself rather than having them demonstrated or explained. He is not a sports enthusiast but is fond of camping. He likes music. His special interest is his stamp collection.

It is hoped a black family will be found for Ricky. He could be either the oldest or the youngest child, but there should not be a child close to his age. Ricky will be a wonderful addition to a family who will give him much love and attention.

To inquire about adopting Ricky, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

in the Committee Minutes as circulated, and he explained in some detail matters previously discussed by the Road Committee pertaining to regulating gasoline pumps and advertising devices adjacent to County Roads. At the request of council copies of the proposed by-laws were circulated for study by each member prior to presentation of these by-laws at a later date.

Chairman of the Plumbing Inspection Committee, Robert Beeney, referred to minutes of that Committee's meeting on December 17th, and to the various aspects discussed. A further report will be presented in January, and it may then be possible to make an educated assessment of the feasibility of this service.

That the report from the Plumbing Inspection Committee be accepted. Carried. Chairman of the Property Committee, Lloyd Walker, reported on the Committee meeting held this date, during which investigations resulted in the recommendation that under the supervision of County Engineer Jack Cox minor renovations should be undertaken to provide more space.

That the report presented by the Property Committee be approved. Carried.

Mr. S. G. Nesbitt reported that the Budget Committee had discussed the feasibility of Municipal Welfare Administration being assumed by the County, but preferred to defer their meeting and subsequent report until January to allow accumulation of more details from comparative areas.

Chairman of the Road Committee, S. G. Nesbitt, advised Council it is now apparent that approval will be granted for erecting a fingerboard sign on County Road Number 1 denoting 'Peterson Road' as requested by many residents. Council agreed to leave this matter with the Road Committee for further investigation and action.

That a vote of thanks be tendered to Warden Robert Fotheringham by this Council for the banquet held in the Legion Hall on November 24th, 1973. Carried.

Warden Robert Fotheringham expressed appreciation of the honour bestowed on him during the past year as a meaningful experience and paid tribute to members of Council and to the Clerk Treasurer for their co-operation and assistance.

County Council adjourned until the Inaugural Session on Tuesday, January 15th, 1974.

Scott speaks on bill in House of Commons

Private Members' Public Bills

(English)
The National Dental Examining Board of Canada

Measure to establish name, expand powers and objectives

Mr. S. Victor Raiton (Welland) moved that Bill S-7, respecting The National Dental Examining Board of Canada, as reported (with amendments) from the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Private Bills and Standing Orders, be concurred in.

Motion agreed to. Mr. Raiton moved that the bill be read the third time and do pass.

He said: Mr. Speaker, I not only have to thank you, sir, but also the hon. member for Toronto-Lakeshore (Mr. Grier) whose time I have borrowed. I hope today's business will not take too long. I just wish to say that Bill S-7 was initiated in the Senate. I am simply the sponsor of the bill. The bill received first reading, second reading and went to the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Private Bills and Standing Orders. It was duly amended by certain motions which were brought before the committee and reported to the House.

As the bill states, it is simply to change the examinations of dentists and dental specialists in order to have uniformity throughout Canada so the standard will be kept high and there will be portability. The deletion of dental auxiliaries was done by motions or amendments which I will present with the bill. I ask Your Honour's permission to have third reading of the bill.

I mention these things, Mr. Speaker, not because there is a danger in the present bill that such authority will be granted to the National Dental Examining Board, but because it had been in the original bill, and obviously the originator of this bill had such blanket authority in mind. By mentioning this, I served notice that I would oppose any move in the future to use this legislation as a door opener. It would be very easy for someone to propose an innocent appearing motion to amend the legislation that would result from the passage of this bill. We often deal with bills in this House that seek to make a simple amendment to existing legislation, and they are rarely defeated.

The clause in the original Bill S-7 sought to have auxiliaries to dentistry included with dental practitioners for licensing purposes, and when it was in committee I raised the question of denturists and asked if they were considered to be auxiliaries to dentistry. I learned that they were in fact considered as such. However, as the bill now stands, with these amendments and the word 'auxiliaries' being deleted, we in this party will lend support.

In closing, may I say I approve the provisions contained in this bill? They will lead to a streamlining of the responsibilities and functions of the Royal College of Dentists and the Royal Dental Examining Board. This is a good step, and it could lead to other measures which would benefit both the profession and the people at large. I am pleased to lend the support of my party to the bill and to assist in its speedy passage. Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Hear, hear! Motion agreed to, bill read the third time and passed.

Mr. W. C. Scott (Victoria-Haliburton): Mr. Speaker, I do not plan to speak very long on this bill, mainly because I can now accept it as amended. It is a much better bill than the one approved earlier by the other place and sent to the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Private Bills and Standing Orders.

It was my pleasure to sit on that committee for my party, and to take part in the examination of Bill S-7. I expressed concern at that time over some of the provisions of the bill that would place what I considered to be excessive authority in the hands of the Royal College of Dentists of Canada and in the hands of the National Dental Examining Board.

In the original bill, it was intended that the National Dental Examining Board, with the approval of the Royal College of Dentists, would be vested with the authority to examine dentists, dental hygienists, dental assistants and auxiliaries to dentistry. These examinations would be given to determine the acceptability of such people to gain licenses, without which they would not be able to practice their professions.

The powers implicit in that wording were unacceptable on at least two counts. First, such powers would be excessive and I would be apprehensive of the tendency of people who hold excessive power to abuse that power. In the second place, some of those professionals listed in the category of auxiliaries to dentistry come under the jurisdiction of the various provincial licensing agencies.

I could not agree to this transfer of responsibility and authority from provincial to federal jurisdiction unless I could see written approval from each of the provinces to such a transfer. Some provinces tend to take their jurisdictions very seriously, and rightly so. I do not see how we could contribute to good order and stability in the dental profession by creating ill will between provinces and the federal government over which has licensing jurisdiction throughout the profession. If there are to be changes in this process, it must be done through negotiation, not be legislation.

Minden Library Committee Meet

The Library Committee met at Minden Library Saturday Morning Jan. 12th to plan their budget for the year. Mr. Robert Corrie was re-elected Chairman and Irene Moore was re-elected secretary.

Included in the budget plans were an Air-conditioner, more stacking chairs and an addition in cupboard space as improvements during the year.

Minden Library has an excellent selection of books but keep hoping to add more or different ones each exchange. The Committee are pleased with the Libraries report 1973 which follows, Memberships 157; hours open 754. The circulations was 16,277 which meant the percentage per hour was 21.59%. This branch is open every day except Sunday and 3 evenings a week.

There are lots of books that want readers--why don't you go to the library some afternoon or evening and see the selection. If it isn't on the shelf the librarian will help you get it. Drop in and enjoy yourself.

We have been pleased that the Girl Guides have taken on Story Time Sat. Afternoon 2-3 and would be happy to have pre-schoolers join this group.

We are appealing again for old and Rare Books for our collection which has drawn numerous comments this past year.
